Heed The Call To Fall SA! (On Our Knees)

The almost daily revelations of government and private sector corruption may be overwhelming for most citizens. However, God is exposing the hidden things – and that is good news!

Many Christians are praying for South Africa. What we see unfolding on our TV news channels and newspaper headlines is the answer to these sincere and heartfelt prayers.

We serve a God that not only hears our prayers - He also answers them! Interceding for South Africa at this volatile time in our history is the most effective thing we can do for peace.

President Jacob Zuma and his protectors are fighting a losing battle. The more effort they expend in deceiving the nation the more God will expose their evil deeds.

Media exposure of Mr Zuma’s corrupt and criminal activities is escalating. The same holds true for various ANC officials, State Owned Enterprises and a growing number of blue chip corporates actively involved in the corrupt and criminal activities of the Gupta crime family.

The Gupta/Zuma corruption scandals have attracted the attention of UK government officials and the FBI and are now the subject of international criminal investigations.

Senior Christian leaders in South Africa are currently planning a nationwide prayer initiative on Friday 24 November to petition the Lord to intervene in the perilous state of our nation.

There are various public protest actions being planned for this day. However, although valid, these protest actions could potentially trigger widespread violence across the country.

Prior to the first democratic elections in 1994, South Africa was wracked by political instability and violence. But Christians from all walks of life united in prayer and intercession for the nation. God intervened and Election Day, 27 April 1994 turned out to be the most peaceful day of the year.

The nation once again faces political instability. Dark forces are stoking racial hatred and conflict. Corruption and the looting of state resources are threatening to shipwreck SA’s economy.

God’s Word declares, “When the enemy comes in like a flood, the Spirit of the Lord will lift up a standard against him” Isaiah 59:19. God’s standard is righteousness and truth.

The time has come and is now for believers in Jesus Christ to put aside all differences and unite as one Church in sincere and heartfelt prayer and intercession for the soul of this nation.

Please stop whatever you are doing on 24 Nov between 12h30 - 14h00 and gather with family, friends or colleagues to urgently pray for righteousness to prevail in South Africa.

The spirit of murder, rape and violence is stalking our streets. Only God can stop this madness. And He commands us to pray! Let us put our trust in God and obey His Word. He will not fail us.

URGENT NOTICE! From ACDP MP, Cheryllyn Dudley

The Basic Education Laws Amendment Bill (BELA Bill) comment deadline is 10 November 2017 but the ACDP has been told that the Department of Basic Education has promised that late submissions will be considered.

Cheryllyn Dudley said: "The ACDP shares the concerns of many that the proposed bill will undermine public school governing bodies and negatively impact on communities if the authority and responsibility to choose teachers, language policy and admissions policy is taken out of their hands.
