Controversial SA Transgender Resolution Adopted Without A Vote At UNHRC!

The Transgender Resolution tabled by South Africa at the UN Human Rights Council in Geneva (UNHRC), co-sponsored (in good faith) by Eswatini, Mozambique, Namibia, Zambia, Zimbabwe, Burundi, India, Iceland and Canada, was adopted without a vote on Thursday 21 March 2019.

Although the SA Government and the liberal media claim the Resolution was “adopted by consensus,” more than one third of UNHRC members disassociated themselves from the text of the Resolution on procedural grounds.

A DIRCO statement declares, “The Resolution, adopted in the 40th session by consensus and without a vote is aimed at eliminating discrimination against women and girls in sport, giving significant global weight from a human rights perspective to Caster Semenya’s case.”

However, the dissenting nations statement raises serious concerns about South Africa's motives. The Resolution appears to have been fast-tracked to coincide with "Human Rights Day" in SA and intended to influence the decision of the International Association of Athletics Federations (IAAF) in the Caster Semenya case.

South Africa is the only African nation that actively supports the radical abortion and sexual rights agenda that includes special privileges for the LGBTQI movement, undermining parental rights and authority, the erosion of religious freedoms, sexual indoctrination of children (CSE) and decriminalised prostitution.

Family Policy Institute (FPI) along with its local and international allies are not only monitoring the relentless assault on the natural family, we are working hard to expose and defeat this insidious agenda.

That is why I am deeply grateful to those who responded so generously to our February funding appeal. Thank you! Your vital contributions help keep us on the frontlines of the battle for faith, family and freedom.

We received R124,500 since 26 February and R153,900 in total since the launch of FPI's fundraising campaign on 29 January. This means we must still raise R296,100 by 30 June 2019 to achieve our pro-family objectives.

Please make a prayerful decision today to donate generously and support the vital work of Family Policy Institute in South Africa. Your prayers and financial partnership is critical for our success.

Wealthy (foreign-funded) anti-family groups are advancing a radical abortion and sexual rights agenda in South Africa with the help of UN agencies. I need your financial support to expose and stop them in their tracks!

Your contributions help us actively defend the natural family and advance Biblical values where it matters most. It also ensures FPI TV and radio programs remain on the air to promote Biblical truth and righteousness.

The following diagram provides a breakdown of FPI's funding needs. Please donate what You can today.

5 x R10,000	donations = R50,000
23 x R5000	donations = R115,000
41 x R2000	donations = R82,000
33 x R1000	donations = R33,000
31 x R500	donations = R15,500
3 x R200	donations = R600

Please donate generously today. You can transfer your contribution directly into FPI's banking account via EFT or via the secure Payfast portal by clicking the "donate" button at the foot of this newsletter.

As a registered NPO/PBO, donations to FPI are tax-deductible. Please utilise this benefit to generously support the vital pro-family work of FPI in South Africa. Tax-certificates are available on request.

May God bless and prosper you and your precious family as you generously sow into the work of His kingdom. Please pray for the success and protection of Family Policy Institute in South Africa.
